WORK EXPERIENCE

- 2017-present      National Scientific Qualification for the position of Full Professor of General Pathology (Academic Field 06/A2, General Pathology and Clinical Pathology).
2015-present      Associate Professor of General Pathology, School of Medical and Pharmaceutical Sciences, Department of Experimental Medicine, General Pathology Unit, University of Genoa.
2012-present      Board member of the PhD Program of Experimental Medicine, Curriculum of Molecular and Cellular Pathology of Aging-Related Diseases, University of Genoa.
2013-2016      Elected Member of the Joint Education Committee, School of Medical and Pharmaceutical Sciences, University of Genoa.
2002-2015      Assistant Professor of General Pathology, School of Medical and Pharmaceutical Sciences, Department of Experimental Medicine, General Pathology Unit, University of Genoa.
1999-2001      Assistant Professor of Biochemistry and Molecular Biology, Institute of Biochemistry and Molecular Biology, University of Bern, Switzerland.

EDUCATION AND TRAINING

- 1999      PhD in Biology and Pathology of Ageing, University of Genoa.
1996-1998      PhD Fellow, Institute of Biochemistry and Molecular Biology, University of Bern, Switzerland.
1994-1998      PhD student of the course of Biology and Pathology of Ageing, University of Genoa.
1993-1994      Post-graduate training in the Biochemistry Laboratory of the General Pathology Institute, University of Genoa.
1994      National qualification for the profession of biologist.
1993      Master's degree in Biology, University of Genoa.
