Teaching activity

I teach Sociology of communication at first year students in the courses of Communication sciences and of Logopedy. I offer an introductory course on both face-to-face communication and media studies.

Postgraduate research and teaching activity

Supervision of PhD students, residents and post-doctoral fellows

In the last years I have been the tutor of some PhD students.

PhD committees membership

For some years I have been a member of the PhD professors board. In the last 10 years I have been the formal and lately the informal coordinator of the Sociology section of the PhD course in Social sciences.

Postgraduate (PhD) teaching activity

I have been regularly teaching in the PhD course in Social sciences.

Research interests

I have been researching for a long time in the field of science and technology. Starting to teach sociology of communication my research interests have slowly moved to face-to-face communication and to media studies. Now political communication have become my main research topic.

Editorial activity

I have been the editor of the EU Commission journal 'Euroscientia Forum'.
