

Andrea Pericu

Role: Adjunct Professor

EDUCATION AND TRAINING

University of Genoa (Doctor of Jurisprudence (magna cum laude, 1991); University College of London (LL.M., 1993); University of Sassari (Ph.D. in Law & Economics, 2000); University of Genoa (Lecturer in Corporate Law, 2000); University of Genoa (Professor in Law, 2002). Visiting Foreign Lawyer, Wilde Sapte, London, 1991.

At present he teaches Corporate Law, Regulation and Competition Law and Law for Energy at the Faculty of Economics, University of Genoa.

PROFESSIONAL HISTORY

He has worked with Bonelli & Associati and with Bonelli Erede from the foundation, developing as of counsel of the firm a professional expertise in the field of corporate law, privatizations, public utilities, project finance and infrastructures, and in the sector of M&A transactions involving publicly-owned corporations and public utilities, including listing procedures and joint ventures. He regularly advises one of the most important associations representing the major players in the public utilities sector and has a key expertise in port and airport facilities and infrastructures.

As from March 2008 he is a founder partner of Bettini Formigaro Pericu and from 2024 of Wegal law firm.

EXPERIENCE

He is author of “Impresa e obblighi di servizio pubblico”, Giuffrè, Milan, 2001, and of several articles on corporate law, private equity, financial services and banking, privatizations, regulation of public services and publicly-owned corporations. He is regularly invited as a speaker at seminars and conferences on the subject matters of his academic works.

OTHER EXPERIENCES

2024 Arbitro per le controversie finanziarie (Consob)

2017 Arbitro Bancario Finanziario (Bank of Italy);

2010 Advisory Board for Public Services of the National Association of Local Authorities (A.N.C.I.);

2008 Osservatorio Formez sui Servizi Pubblici (FORMEZ);

2004 Society of Advanced Legal Studies, London;

2003 Fondazione ASTRID;

2003 Consultant Editor: International Corporate Law Bulletin, London;