

Marco Arato

Tenured Professor

- In the academic years 1992-93, 1993-94 and 1994-1995, I taught Private and Social Insurance Law at the Faculties of Economics and Statistical Sciences of the University of Messina.
- Since the academic year 1995-1996, I have been teaching Commercial Law and, since the academic year 2011-2012, I have been teaching Business Crisis Law at the Faculty of Economics of the University of Genoa too. From the 2001-2002 academic year until 2010-2011, I taught Banking Law at the same faculty.
- I am the course coordinator for Commercial Law A-D at the Department of Economics of the University of Genoa and for Business Crisis Law at the Departments of Law and Economics of the same University.
- I have been a member of various government commissions for the reform of bankruptcy law, in particular I contributed to the drafting of both the enabling laws for the reform of bankruptcy law and the crisis code.
- I have been a member (and sometimes chair) of the Commission for the qualifying examinations for the profession of chartered accountant at the University of Genoa on numerous occasions.
- I practice as a lawyer at the Court of Cassation in a leading Italian law firm.
