

Aristide Canepa

Associate professor

✉ aristide.canepa@unige.it

☎ +39 01020951122

Education and training

1988

Degree in Political Sciences

The 'Cohabitation' in France - 110/110 magna cum laude
University of Genoa - Genoa - IT

1994

Ph.D. in Constitutional Law

First elements for a comparative analysis of 'Cohabitation'
University of Bologna - Bologna - IT

Academic experience

1995 - 2002

Research fellow

University of Genoa - Genoa - IT
Research - Cooperation to teaching seminars exams thesis - Teaching -
Participation to Faculty Councils - International Programs

2002 - ONGOING

Associate professor

University of Genoa - Genoa - IT
Teaching and related activities (degree thesis-Ph.D. thesis-office hours for students-seminars-exams) - Research - Participation to Faculty Councils -
International Programs

1999 - 2011

Member of the Departmental Executive

Department of European Researches - University of Genoa - Genoa - IT

2002 - 2011

Coordinator of the Juridical section of the Department

Department of European Researches - University of Genoa - Genoa - IT

2003 - 2008

Deputy Director

Department of European Researches - University of Genoa - Genoa - IT

2008 - 2011

Director

Department of European Researches - University of Genoa - Genoa - IT

2007 - 2008

President of the Council of Degree Course in International and Diplomatic Sciences

School of Political Sciences - University of Genoa - Genoa - IT

1998 - 1999

Member of the Council of Presidency

School of Political Sciences - University of Genoa - Genoa - IT

2004 - 2009

Deputy of the Dean for internationalization activities

School of Political Sciences - University of Genoa - Genoa - IT

2000 - 2012

Person in charge of several Erasmus agreements with universities of Poland Romania Turkey Portugal and Slovenia

School of Political Sciences - University of Genoa - Genoa - IT

2004 - 2008

Contact Person for the Bologna Process at the Conference of Presidents of Italian Universities (CRUI)

University of Genoa - Genoa - IT

2004 - 2011

Contact Person for cooperation and students exchange in the framework of CINDA (Inter-University Development Centre) with several Universities of Europe and Latin America

School of Political Sciences (04-11) and Univ. of Genoa (04-08) - Genoa - IT

2008 - 2011

Member of the Area 12 (Juridical Sciences) Scientific Committee

University of Genoa - Genoa - IT

Language skills

Italian

Mother tongue

English

Independent

French

Independent

Portuguese

Independent

Spanish

Independent

Ligurian

Mother tongue

Teaching activity

In the 2018/19 academic year, Prof. Canepa is going to give the following teachings, all in degree courses of the Department of Political Sciences: Developing Countries and Constitutional Law, in both the Master's degrees in Administration and Public Policies and in International and Cooperation Sciences (in English)

Comparative Public Law (Diritto Pubblico Comparato), in the Bachelor's degree in Political and Administrative Sciences (in Italian)

Latin-American Constitutional Law (Derecho Constitucional Iberoamericano), in the Master's degree in International and Cooperation Sciences (in Spanish)

During his career, he gave also the following teachings:

- in degree courses of the School/Department of Political Sciences: Comparative Public Law (1999-2001), Italian and Comparative Constitutional Law (2001-2002), Regional System (2002-2003), Comparative and European Constitutional Law (2002-2012), Comparative Ecclesiastical Law (2002-2003), Systems of Government in the European Countries (2004-2005 e 2006-2011), Constitutional Law of the Mediterranean Countries (2005-2009 e 2010-2015), History and Systems of Relations between State and Church (2007-2008), Regional Law (2012-2013), Regional and Local Autonomies Law (2013-2015), Constitutional Law and Developing Countries (in English, 2016-2017);

- in degree courses of the Department of Law: Comparative Public Law (2013-2015), Rights of Freedom and Social Rights (2016-2017).

Other didactic activities and lectures cycles at the University of Genoa:

- in the Post-Graduate Course in European Studies, School of Political Sciences;
- in the Post-Graduate Course in Development Cooperation (then Cooperation for Economic, Political and Social Development);
- in the Master in International Cultural Management, Ministry of Foreign Affairs and School of Political Sciences and of Languages;
- in the training program about Women, Politics and Institutions; Ministry of Gender Equality, University of Genoa, Italian High School of Public Administration;
- in the framework of the agreement between University e Italian Ministry of Justice, lectures in the jails of Genoa-Marassi and Genoa-Pontedecimo;
- in the so-called University of the Third Age.

In other Italian universities:

- in the project Mediator Women for a Log-Standing Peace, Ministry of Foreign Affairs and University of Perugia, lectures about Foundations of Constitutional Law, paying specific attention to liberal-democratic regime and to Italian Constitution (Rome, 2018).

Postgraduate research and teaching activity

Supervision of PhD students, residents and post-doctoral fellows

In the Ph.D. course in Democracy and Human Rights, University of Genoa, XXIV cycle, he was supervisor of Mr. Davide Dolcezza (thesis on: The protection of human rights in Morocco: juridical and institutional perspectives)

In the Ph.D. course in Political Sciences (curriculum Democracy and Human Rights), University of Genoa, he was supervisor of Mr. Ervis Martani (thesis on the protection of human rights in the Albanian constitutional system)

In the Ph.D. course in Compared Constitutional Systems, University of Genoa, XXVIII cycle, he was supervisor of Mr. Francesco Santolini (thesis on: The evolution of the powers of the Head of State in parliamentary Republics, having special consideration to the appointment of the Cabinet: Italian experience compared to IV French Republic and to Federal Republic of Germany)

In the Ph.D. course in Law (curriculum Compared Constitutional Systems), University of Genoa, XXIX cycle, he was supervisor of Mr. Giacomo Mannocci (thesis on: From Imperial sovereignty to popular sovereignty. The evolution of the charge of Tennō in Japanese constitutionalism) e of a second student who didn't manage to finish the Ph.D. course.

In the Ph.D. course in Social Sciences (curriculum Political Sciences), University of Genoa, XXX cycle, he was supervisor of Mrs. Laura Guercio (thesis in co-tutorship with Trinity College, Dublin, on: Women's Rights in the Constitutional Reforms after the 2011 Arab springs (in English)).

PhD committees membership

- From XVII to XX cycle, member of the board of professors of the Ph.D. course in Constitutional Law (leading university of the Ph.D. net University of Bologna; other partners: Universities of Genoa, Parma, Salerno, Urbino and Modena-Reggio Emilia);
- in the XXI cycle, member of the board of professors of the Ph.D. course in Democracy and Human Rights (University of Genoa);
- 2006-2009: Coordinator of the same Ph.D. course;
- From XXII to XXIV cycle, member of the board of professors of the Ph.D. school in Political Sciences (University of Genoa);
- From XXV to XXVII cycle, member of the board of professors of the Ph.D. course in Political Sciences (curriculum Democracy and Human Rights), in the framework of the Ph.D. school in Humanities (University of Genoa);
- In the XXVIII cycle, member of the board of professors the Ph.D. course in Compared Constitutional Systems, in the framework of the Ph.D. school in Law (University of Genoa);
- From XXIX to XXX cycle, member of the board of professors the Ph.D. course in Law, in the framework of the Ph.D. school in Social Sciences (University of Genoa).

Postgraduate (PhD) teaching activity

In the Ph.D. course in Constitutional Law (University of Bologna; see above), he coordinated seminars on “Regions and European Union”, “The system of government of European Union” and “The Constitutional Court as a guarantee body”;

In the Ph.D. course in Democracy and Human Rights (Genoa, see above), he coordinated the course of Research Methodology and the cycles of seminars;

In the Ph.D. course in Compared Constitutional Systems (Genoa, see above), he gave lectures on Northern African Constitutions after the Arab Spring, on the recent evolution of parliamentary system in European countries, on equal democracy and equality of gender, and on the relation between State and religion in European countries;

In the Ph.D. course in Law (Genoa, see above), he gave lectures on the relation between State and religion in European countries.

Research interests

PRESENT RESEARCH FIELDS:

- Religious values and confessions in European countries constitutionalism
- Liberal-democratic regimes and the problems of their transposal in countries having no European cultures
- Defence of democracy, anti-terroristic and anti-authoritarian rules, in constitutional review, in a comparative perspective

MAIN RESEARCH FIELDS of the PREVIOUS YEARS:

- Systems of government in the liberal-democratic regimes, paying particular attention to the semi-presidential one
- Functions and evolution of Parliaments in light of the development of multi-level governance
- European integration and its constitutional and jurisprudential consequences in the concerned countries, especially in relation to the 2008 economic crisis
- Equal democracy and womens' rights
- Juridical status of foreigners and rules on citizenship and migration.

Grants

1994 - 1999

Relations between State systems and European Communities System sovereignty representation and democracy (general subject) - European Parliament's Election electoral systems political processes consequences (Research group of the University of Genoa)

Ministry of University and Scientific and Technological Research - IT 19200000 LIT (9917 EUR) (Research group of the University of Genoa) - Participant

Granted by the Ministry as Scientific Research Program of Relevant National Interest (PRIN).

Other partners: Universities of Naples-Frederick II (leading university of the research net), Rome-La Sapienza, Bari, Cagliari, Turin, Milan, Parma and Palermo.

Research groups and publications involved also scholars from other Italian universities and from Germany, France and Spain.

1999 - 2001

The relationship between the state of the general principles of a common constitutional law in the European Union and in the experience of Italy France Portugal and Belgium (Research group of the University of Genoa)

Ministry of University and Scientific and Technological Research - IT 100000000 LIT (51646 EUR) (Research group of the University of Genoa) - Participant

Granted by the Ministry as Scientific Research Program of Relevant National Interest (PRIN).

General subject of the research: The fundamental principles of constitutional law common to the rules of the community and of the national States

Other partners: Universities of Naples-Frederick II (leading university of the research net), Rome-La Sapienza, Bari, Cagliari, Calabria, Milan, Parma and Pavia.

Publications and international congresses organized in the framework of the program involved also scholars from German, French, Belgian, Spanish, Romanian and Croatian universities. Moreover, researchers of the Research group of the University of Genoa published also abroad, in Romania and Latvia.

2002 - 2005

Europe's Institutional Perspectives the proposals of the European Convention the decisions of the Inter-governmental Conference and their implementation (general subject) - The evolution of the form of government in the European Union (group of U. Genoa)

Ministry of Education University and Research (MIUR) - IT 55200 EUR (Research group of the University of Genoa) - Participant

Granted by the Ministry as Scientific Research Program of Relevant National Interest (PRIN).

Other partners: Universities of Naples-Frederick II (leading university of the research net), Cagliari, Calabria and Parma.

Publications and international congresses organized in the framework of the program involved also scholars and judges from French, Finnish, Spanish, Romanian and Croatian universities and European Courts. Moreover, researchers of the Research group of the University of Genoa published and diffused the research results also abroad, in Poland and

Colombia.

2004 - 2007

The territorial organization of the State in the perspective of evolution of the European institutions experiences and models in comparison (Research group of the University of Genoa)

Ministry of Education University and Research (MIUR) - IT

35000 EUR (Research group of the University of Genoa) - Principal investigator

Granted by the Ministry as Scientific Research Program of Relevant National Interest (PRIN).

General subject of the research: Territorial autonomies at the centre in both the perspective of federal reform of the State and the process of European integration

Other partners: Universities of Naples-Frederick II (leading university of the research net), Cagliari, Milan, Cassino, Eastern Piedmont, Sassari and Campania-Vanvitelli.

Publications issued in the framework of the program involved also scholars from Spanish universities.

2006 - 2009

Stability of the Executive and representative democracy (general subject) - Stability of the Executive and representative democracy comparative and European outlines (Research group of the University of Genoa)

Ministry of Education University and Research (MIUR) - IT

15693 EUR (Research group of the University of Genoa) - Participant

Granted by the Ministry as Scientific Research Program of Relevant National Interest (PRIN).

Other partners: Universities of Naples-Frederick II (leading university of the research net), Cagliari, Calabria and Milan.

Researchers of the Research group of the University of Genoa disseminated the research results also abroad, in France.

2009 - 2013

The Financial Constitution (general subject) - The Financial Constitution the budget process and the balance of the system of government in the experience of some European States and of the EU (Research group of the University of Genoa)

Ministry of Education University and Research (MIUR) - IT

64414 EUR (Research group of the University of Genoa) - Participant

Granted by the Ministry as Scientific Research Program of Relevant National Interest (PRIN).

Other partners: University of Bologna (leading university of the research net).

Publications and international congresses organized in the framework of the program involved also scholars from French, German, Spanish, Romanian and Polish universities.

2010 - 2016

Equality in the fundamental rights and crisis of State and public finances a proposal for a new model of social cohesion having special consideration for transports liberalization and ruling

Ministry of Education University and Research (MIUR) - IT

Participant

Granted by the Ministry as Scientific Research Program of Relevant National Interest (PRIN).

Other partners: University of Calabria.

International congresses organized in the framework of the program involved also scholars from other Italian universities, as well as from Belgian and Spanish universities.

1995 - ONGOING

Several projects (see description below)

University of Genoa - IT

Participant

Prof. Canepa has continuously been taking part to Genoa University Research Projects, about subjects as 'The relation between President and Prime Minister in the semi-presidential regimes', 'Semi-presidentialism and institutional reforms', 'The constitutionalisation of Europe', 'The debate on the reform of the form of government in light of contemporary institutional models' and others, generally related to the comparative study of the forms of government.

Editorial activity

2010-2012: co-director of the review "Gli Stranieri. Rassegna di Studi e Giurisprudenza" (The Foreigners. Collection of Studies and Jurisprudence). In the first 2000 years, member of the editorial board of the review "Studia Politica. Romanian Political Science Review/Revista Română de Știință Politică".

Member from the establishment of the University of Genoa editorial staff of the review "Diritto Pubblico Comparato ed Europeo" (European and Comparative Public Law).

Assignments abroad

Teaching activities in foreign universities:

- program Tempus PEC 7338, course on Political Life in Europe, (in English), School of National Economy, Economic University of Bratislava (1997);
- program Tempus PEC 9572, course on Institutions Politiques des Pays de l'Union Européenne (Political Institutions of European Union Countries; in French), School of Political and Administrative Sciences, University of Bucharest (1997);

- program Tempus PEC 11389, course on Italian Democracy and the Europe, (1998); and on Political Life of European Union Member States (1999) (both in English), Department of Political Science, University of Latvia, Riga;
- program Tempus PEC 13219, course on Fédéralisation, Régionalisation, Décentralisation, Autonomie Locale (Federalisation, Regionalisation, Devolution, Local Autonomy) (1999); and a cycle of seminars on training and update of public servants (both in French, the latter for the professors, 2001), School of Political and Administrative Sciences, University of Bucharest;
- program Socrates/Erasmus, course on Institutions Politiques des Pays de l'Union Européenne, (Political Institutions of European Union Countries; in French), School of Political and Administrative Sciences, University of Bucharest (2000);
- program Socrates/Erasmus, courses on The Process of the European Union Constitutionalisation, on The Municipalities in the Framework of the Italian Constitution and on The Regional System in Italy: origins and developments (all in English), Institute of Political Science, University of Wrocław (2002);
- program Cooperlink "Creation of a network between Italian, Slovenian and Croatian universities, to strengthen inter-university cooperation and cultural exchange between the involved countries, by the establishment of common courses in the field of European studies": lectures on Italian constitutional system, School of Law, University of Split, and lectures on Italian political system, School of Social Sciences, University of Ljubljana (2003; both in English);
- program Tempus JEP 17071, cycle of lectures on Europe's constitutionalization process (in English), Institute of European Law and Comparative Legislation, School of Law, University of Rijeka (2004);
- Cátedra Europa 2005 (Chair on Europe), seminars on La evolución del sistema de gobierno en la Unión europea (The evolution of European Union system of government), and on the evolution of Parliaments' functions (both in Spanish; the latter for the professors of public law), School of Law, Northern University of Barranquilla (2005);
- lecture on The Fundamental Rights, Genoese branch of the Private Technical University of Loja (in Italian) (2006)
- program Socrates/Erasmus, lectures on The classification of the regimes in a constitutional perspective, paying particular attention to Italian and Portuguese State (in Portuguese), Department of International Relations and Public Service, Minho University, Braga (2011).

In addition to the above mentioned teachings, in the framework of international programs as Erasmus, Tempus, Cooperlink and Cinda, he took part in coordination activities at the following universities: Oxford Brookes, Bucharest, Maria Skłodowska-Curie in Lublin, Wrocław, Ljubljana, Rijeka, State Univ. in Astrakhan, Minho Univ. in Braga, High School of Languages and Administration in Leiria and in Vila Nova de Gaia, Catholic Univ. in Leuven. In the framework of a program of European Social Fund, he was advisor for the Department of Public Service, School of Political, Administrative and Communication Sciences, University Babeş-Bolyai in Cluj, about the establishment of teaching curriculum in Administrative Sciences.

He took part, by lectures, publications, and as speaker in congresses, in programs of the Italian Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Iraq (about human trafficking), Yemen and Libya (about Constitution-making processes).

Other professional activities

External activities linked to the functions of university professor:

Member of the selection board in four competitive exams for the position of university research fellow in Public Comparative Law (School of Political Sciences, University of Teramo, 2000; School of Political Sciences, University of Milan, 2002) and in Constitutional Law (School of Law, University of Naples-Frederick II, 2007; School of Law, University of Rome-La Sapienza, 2008).

Member of the examination board for swearing in two Italian associate professors of Constitutional Law.

2004-2008: deputy member of the Board of Advisors on International Solidarity and Development Cooperation of the region Liguria (appointed by the University of Genoa).

2002-2008: full member of the Regional Board for Electoral Guarantees at the Court of Appeal of Genoa (appointed by the University of Genoa).

Member of the examination board for the call to the Bar – years 2005, 2007 and 2016 – at the Court of Appeal of Genoa (appointed by the University of Genoa).

In the school year 2007/2008, he lectured for the project Education to European citizenship, organized by the Regional Education Offices of Liguria, in the framework of the National Project of Training and Research-Action for school heads and teachers (Albenga)

Referee in the program Vinci of the Italian-French University in 2010-2011; referee in the program Galileo 2019 of the same institution.