

CURRICULUM VITAE

Alessandro Malacarne

alessandro.malacarne@edu.unige.it

Alessandro Malacarne is a Research Fellow in Criminal Procedure within the PRIN project CRYPTOSAFE – Towards a Safe Seizure and Confiscation of Crypto-Assets in Criminal Proceedings (supervisor: Prof. Jacopo Della Torre) at the Department of Law, University of Genoa

He previously held a Research Fellowship in Criminal Procedure as part of the European project DIGIRIGHTS – Digitalisation of Defence Rights in Criminal Proceedings (supervisor: Prof. Mitja Gialuz)

He obtained a PhD in Law (May 2024) from the Department of Law at the University of Genoa (tutor: Prof. Mitja Gialuz)

He graduated with honours (110/110 cum laude) in Law from the University of Pisa (supervisor: Prof. Enrico Marzaduri)

He is qualified to practise law and collaborated with the law firm of Prof. Tullio Padovani

He has been invited as a speaker at numerous national and international conferences (Spain, Germany, Estonia, Croatia, Belgium)

He has conducted research at several foreign universities (Girona, Madrid, Seville, Leuven) and at the Spanish Tribunal Constitucional

He is the author of several publications in national and international journals and edited volumes. His main research interests include digital criminal investigations, data retention, electronic criminal proceedings, corporate criminal liability, judicial error, trial by media, and restorative justice