

VINCENZO SCIARABBA

Associate Professor of Constitutional Law

EDUCATION AND TRAINING

Born in 1979 in Pavia, where he attended classic high school. In 1995 he won a competition on contemporary history and European integration and a stage at the European Parliament and the ECtHR.

He graduated in Law (historical-comparative course) in Pavia in 2003, with 110/110 cum laude, discussing a degree thesis on "The Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union".

Between 1998 and 1999 he also attended – with grant – the University School for Advanced Study (IUSS) in Pavia. Between 1999 and 2001 he was tutor of Private Law course and students' delegate at Faculty Committee and Didactic Commission. In 2002 he took part in "Forum on international justice and human rights" in Pavia.

In January 2007 PhD degree in Constitutional Law – thesis on "Fundamental Rights and Principles among National and European Sources and Courts: Events and Prospects of National Constitutional system, of EU and ECHR" (evaluation: excellent) – at University of Milano, where he collaborated with the chairs of Comparative Public Law of professors Floridia and Iacometti, of English and American Law of professor Bognetti and Constitutional Justice of professor Onida. Between 2004 and 2006 he also attended professor Carrozza's course "Human rights" and a seminar cycle "The Comparative Constitutional Justice" held by professor P. Pasquino joined to professor Onida's course "Constitutional Justice".

PROFESSIONAL HISTORY

After obtaining his PhD at University of Milano, he served as research fellow in Comparative Public Law at the University of Pavia (2007-2010)

Then he served as temporary researcher in the same field at the same University (2010-2013).

For five years (2009-2014), he also served as scientific and educational coordinator of the Advanced School for Legal Professions Pavia-Bocconi (www.lawschool.it).

For about 2 years (2014-2016) he served as Accredited Parliamentary Assistant at the European Parliament, mainly dealing with legislative work and legal and political issues within the remit of the Committee on Civil Liberties, Justice and Home Affairs, inter-institutional negotiations and other various issues related to the task and the institutional context.

Since 2019, he is Associate Professor of Constitutional Law at the University of Genova, where he has also taught or teaches Rights of Liberty and Social Rights, as well as - also in English - Comparative Public Law; and, in English, Global Constitutionalism.

TEACHING EXPERIENCES

Since 2006/2007, he did and/or does educational activity, as:

- Lecturer of Italian and European Constitutional Law course at Bocconi University (2006-2007);
- Lecturer of Constitutional Law course and Public Law course at University LIUC – Carlo Cattaneo of Castellanza (2006-2013);
- Lecturer in Seminars within Comparative Public Law and Regional Law courses at University of Pavia (2006-2013);
- Lecturer at the “Scuola Superiore della Magistratura” (2016);
- Professor of (advanced) Constitutional Law, Public Comparative Law (in Italian and in English), Rights of Liberty and Social Rights and Global Constitutionalism (in English) at University of Genova (2019-present).

PUBLICATIONS, CONFERENCES, RESEARCH PROJECTS AND FURTHER INFORMATION

He has written about 100 publications, among which the monographs “Tra Fonti e Corti. Diritti e principi fondamentali in Europa: profili costituzionali e comparati degli sviluppi sopranazionali” (2008), “Il giudicato e la CEDU. Profili di diritto costituzionale, internazionale e comparato” (2012), “Compendio di Diritto costituzionale” (2018, 2019, 2020), “Il ruolo della CEDU tra Corte costituzionale, giudici comuni e Corte europea” (2019), “Il ‘controllo di vicinato’. Profili costituzionali e comparati tra questioni di competenza, criticità sostanziali e possibili riconfigurazioni del fenomeno” (2021).

[The complete list of publications can be found in the full italian c.v. published on the University of Genova website]

He has taken part in 4 National Research Projects accepted for funding on the basis of competitive calls involving peer review (PRIN), on European Integration and/or Constitutional Justice.

He was in charge of the Research Unit at the University of Genoa of a national research project accepted for funding on the basis of competitive calls involving peer review (PRIN 2022) on “Regulatory tools for the prevention and fight against gambling in the digital age”.

He produced/held dozens of reports, lessons, papers and speech in Pavia, Milano, Bari, Teramo, Genova, Siena, Macerata, Ferrara, Pisa, Roma, Parma, Venezia, Salerno, Torino, Modena...

Since 2020 he's member of the editorial staff of "Consulta OnLine" Review, and responsible for the section of the website www.giurcost.org on the case law of the European Courts.

He has also been a member of the editorial staff of "Diritto pubblico comparato ed europeo" (European and Comparative Public Law) Review, and administrator of namesake association's web-site (www.dpce.it).

He has been a member of the Comparative Law Italian Association (AIDC) and gave reports at I° Biennial Talk of Young Comparatists of AIDC on "The new frontiers of comparative law" (Macerata, 2008) and at XXII Biennial Colloquium of the AIDC (Salerno, 2013).